

Idéias de startups

ópico

Demo Day for the 4thly Accelerator, Spring 2020

Descrição

Ten startups from around the world will each do a 3-minute presentation, followed by Q&A. These ten startups have been immersed together (virtually) for the past two months, as part of the 4thly Global Startup Accelerator Program.

ZebraML increases reproducibility of preclinical drug trials with AI and Machine Learning. MVP is using Zebrafish (Danio Rerio) locomotor behavioral tests.

Ravent is a guest interaction platform for the hospitality industry, providing guests with a modern, white label concierge service that also drives profitability for the operators.

PiqIs is co-founded by a Pulitzer Prize-winning photographer and a digital media expert, providing a managed marketplace optimized to harness the power of computational photography.

StrategyLabs provides an AI platform to help teams gather, organize and contextualize information, so they can build better products and accelerate their business growth.

Living Strategy provides strategic planning products and services for educational leaders to create, communicate and implement an inspirational vision for their school community and the students they serve.

Focus is a digital platform that uses design sprint principles and top-3% of world product design agencies to help teams to launch any digital product from idea to testing with real customers in just 2 weeks.

BikeOn has developed an innovative device that converts any bicycle to electric assist in seconds, with no tools or skills required.

Letsundo(it) creates connected devices for personal and public medical emergencies.

InsightScout is developing a computer vision-driven platform that helps football coaches become dramatically more efficient by automatically reviewing game tapes and delivering actionable insights.

Gossip is a unique new mobile platform for short voice stories that give a voice to your emotions.